

Adams Atoms
Bad Religion

Intro:

Em D
Some live, some die
C G D C
Everybody wonders why we re here should even try
G D C G
Philosophies lost in the night

Versel:

D C
A beacon in the distance, you gotta turn around
G D
Its vestige deeply flickers in elocution sound
D G
The modernist chronometer uptining underbound
C D
Pretensions of a higher ground

Chorus1:

C Em
Higher ground
G D Em
Introspective paradise found
C Em G D Em
Adam s atoms resound

Verse2:

The economy of nature, the dead and shallow graves
The particles of happiness elude us in their names
A psycho-symbiotical reflection on the waves
Eternal is the night and day

Chorus2:

Night and day
Omnipresency those who fade
Adam s atoms remain

Break:

Em D C G D C G D
G

Verse3:

The righteous opposition has led us all astray
One side against the other, one loses one reclaimed
And if reconciliation eludes us every day
Then will we ever find a way?

Last Chorus:

C Em

Find a way

G D

Em

Not without religion as gaze
