Verse

F# D A E
Here s a story of an honest man losing religion,
Climbing the pulpit steps before an eager congregation,
The while praying came a wicked inspiration,
Brothers, sisters this is what he said:

Chorus

F# E A D
Dearly beloved, dearly beloved, dearly beloved,
(Make no mistake, despite our traits, I ve seldom seen evidence of genes)
F# D A E F# D E
I can t relate to you, I can t relate to you!

Verse

He was the kind of guy who d always go right out of his way,
But more before that crazy notion leapt right into his head,
And stubbornly crept into every mad perception,
I can t deny a funny feeling when he said:

Chorus

Dearly beloved, dearly beloved, dearly beloved,
I can t relate to you, I can t relate to you!

Bridge

F# E D
Dearest in memoriam - set phasers to stun
C#
And grab yourself a neighbors skeleton to lean upon,
F# E
Did you know him in life - one filled with regret,
D C#
So soon we all forget - we ever met,
D E
Do you know my name - sing a light refrain
D F# D A E
For a man estranged - I won t deny that I m inclined to isolate

Chorus

Dearly beloved, dearly beloved, dearly beloved,
I can t relate to you, I can t relate to you!
I can t relate to you, I can t relate to you, I can t relate to you!
