The road is narrow, the horizon wide
D C G D
And they say what s waiting on the other side
D C G D
Is so rewarding and the ultimate prize
Em G A
But what good is something if you can t have it until you die?

G A D F
Desperate tenacious clinging like a grain of sand
G A F
Watching its foundation wash away, wash away
G A D F
Drunk with the assertions they know they can t defend
G A D
Confident that they might live again.

G A G D F
Live again! Live again! Would you give it all up to live again?
G A G A D
Live again! Live again! Would you give it all up to live again?

Temptation, revaluation, you decide
D C G D
Torture shows its colors often in disguise
D C G D
Progress and purpose help us realize
Em G A
We pass along a brighter faith even though it must be blind.
