Dm-Bb-F-A

Dm Bb
Yeah, can you hear the call in our rambling land? Susurrations
F A
that can expand beyond all hope of light and plunge us into unrelenting
Dm Bb
night; A pall on truth and reason, It feels like hunting season,
so avoid those lines of sight, and we ll set this right!

Dm F C
Welcome to the new dark ages:
Gm A Dm
Yeah, I hope you re living right.
F C
These are the new dark ages,
Gm A
And the world might end tonight.

[intro chords]

Dm Bb
Now come, ye children, one and all - let s heed Ezekiel s call,
F A Dm
And bide until the word is good and ripe then get plucked clean out of sight.
Bb
The world will be erased; our kin will be immaculate, ejaculate in space,
F A
Before the king of king s love, he ll snatch us from above, [break]
brothers, help me sing it!

[Welcome to the new dark ages...]

Gm F C Gm
So how do you sleep? There s nothing to keep... This is deep!
F C
Because we re animals, with golden rules, who-
Gm C
who can t be moved, by rational views, yeah!

[new chords this time!]

Dm Bb F

Welcome to the new dark ages: Yeah, I hope you re living right.

C A

“Welcome to the new dark ages!” Say it again, yeah!

Dm Bb F

These are the new dark ages, I hope you re living right.

C A Dm

Welcome to the new dark ages! And the world might end tonight.
