Dm-Bb-F-A

Yeah, can you hear the call in our rambling land? Susurrations that can expand beyond all hope of light and plunge us into unrelenting night; A pall on truth and reason, It feels like hunting season, so avoid those lines of sight, and we ll set this right!

Welcome to the new dark ages:
Yeah, I hope you re living right.
These are the new dark ages,
And the world might end tonight.

[intro chords]

Now come, ye children, one and all - let s heed Ezekiel s call,
And bide until the word is good and ripe then get plucked clean out of sight.
The world will be erased; our kin will be immaculate, ejaculate in space,
Before the king of king s love, he ll snatch us from above, brothers, help me sing it!

[Welcome to the new dark ages...]

So how do you sleep? There s nothing to keep... This is deep!
Because we re animals, with golden rules, who-
who can t be moved, by rational views, yeah!

[new chords this time!]
