Letra:

There s a watch in my pocket and its hands are broken the face is blank but the gears are turning confusion is a fundamental state of mind it doesn t really matter what I m figuring out I m guaranteed to wind up in a state of a doubt

refrao

And sanity is a full-time job in a world that is always changing and sanity is a state of mind that you believe in sanity

there s a shadow on the wall where the paint is peeling my body
s moving foward but my mind is reeling depression is a fundamental state of being it doesn t really mater how my day has turned out I always end up living in this world of doubt
