THE ANSWER

Em C A C D Em
C B C B C B C
Em D C B
Long ago, in a dusty village full of hunger, pain and strife,
Em D C
A man came forth with a vision of truth and a way to a better
A D life.

Em G C
He was convinced he had the answer and he compelled people to D follow along.

B C A
But the hunger never vanished, and the man was banished, and
C D E BCBCBCBC
the village dried up and died.

Em D C
At a time when wise men peered through glass tubes toward the B skies,

Em D C
The Heavens changed in predictable ways and one man was able
A D
to find,

Em G C
That he had thought he d found the answer and he was quick to write his revelations.

B C A C
But as they were scrutinised in his colleagues eyes, he soon
D Em BCBCBCBC
became a mockery.

CHORUS:

Em G C
Don t tell me about the answer cause then another one will come along soon.

Em G C B
I don t believe you have the answer, I ve got ideas too.

C A
But if you ve got enough naivetÃ©, and you ve got conviction,
C D Em

Then The Answer is perfect for you.

Em D C
An urban sprawl sits, choking on it s discharge, overwhelmed
B
by industry,

Em D
Searching for a modern day saviour from another place,
C A D
inclined toward charity

Em G C D
Everyone begging for an answer without regard to validity,

B C A C
The searching never ends, it goes on and on and on for
