

The Name Of The Game
Badfinger

A Bm F#m C#m
Saw the railway master and I looked him in the eye
D A G
D
Said would you go much faster if you thought that you would die
A Bm F#m C#m
He said not me sir, I could not care, in fact I would not try
D A G D
Protest would not take me far, it s different me not being a star
B D A
I lock my feelings in a jar, until another day
A Bm F#m C#m
Comfort me dear brother, would you tell me what you know
D A G
D
Somewhere in this paper world, is a place where I can go
A Bm F#m C#m
Oh, long awaited mother is it time to make your show
D A G
D
And take your babies to your breast, knowing them will pass the test
B D A
All our sin s should be confessed, before we carry on [Refrão]
E Bm G D A
Oh, don t refuse me, if you choose me you ll follow my shame
E Bm G D A
No, don t confuse me, for I know it s the name of the game
A Bm F#m C#m
Got up on my pillow and I looked up at the sun
D A G
D
Said you could see quite cleary now, the things that we have done
A Bm F#m
C#m
We burned your sacred willow and our battles we have won
D A G D
Did we get so very far, it s different me not being a star
B D A
I lock my feelings in a jar, until they go away

[Refrão]

E Bm G D A

Oh, don't refuse me, if you choose me you'll follow my shame

E Bm G D A

No, don't confuse me, for I know it's the name of the game

E Bm G D A

Oh, don't refuse me, if you choose me you'll follow my shame

E Bm G D A

No, don't confuse me, for I know it's the name of the game

E Bm G D A

Oh . . . Oh . . . Oh

E Bm G D A

Oh . . . Oh . . . Oh
