C Am
Turn me to the canyon s anchor
Em C Em
Flip me from an old headbanger
C Am Em C Em
Into seas of fishes and my friends

On the wall of New York City

I can see the spring committee

Plummet to the bluey ocean floor

I know that I can find you

Am Em C Em
I know that I can find you

Verse

C Am
Buy a ball and cut his head off
Em C Em
Re-enact the words you speak of
C Am Em C Em
Til your memory trickles down my spine

C Am
Western girl, you are my snowflake
Em C Em
Burn inside the open earthquake
C Am Em C Em
Til your memory rolls in perfect time

5 4 3 2 1

Am Em C Em

I know where I can find you

Am Em C Em

I know where I can find you

I had a nice time here with you upon your legs

And out of the blue float all these bruises on your shins

You'll bleed, bleed for the first time, bleed, bleed for the first time,

F Dm

bleed, bleed

G

Ah...

Verse

C Am

Cause I can talk to you through tin cans

Em C Em

Tied together with some string, man

We can tangle stories all through space
