Close to heaven in the cold half light

Crystal clear in my mind

No complications

We found a room with a view
Bm7
Lock the door and change the sign

Just you and me together

This night could last forever

It s in black and white in plain and simple terms

Where is the laughter

I know there must have been a change of heart
Am7
Oh I don't wanna stay here with you

Now the sun won't shine

This total isolation

Seems to cloud our celebration

While I'm waiting all alone in my room
