I saw Heywood live last month at the local Funny Bone Comedy Club. If you get a chance, do yourself a favor and see him live, he s great!
Talked to him after the show too and he s super-nice! I was right in front of the stage and watched him play this, so I m pretty sure it s right. I had never seen a tab for any of his songs on-line....so I thought I d be the first! :O) Feel free to send any questions or comments to me. And be sure to check out Heywood s site:
