

Roland

Barefoot Truth

Very easy song, but a great song

CAPO 2

Not sure exactly what to call these chords but here they are

Em	Cadd9	G	D
3	3	3	3
3	3	3	3
0	0	0	2
2	3	2	x
x	x	3	x

The rhythm is pretty easy to pick up but it is just those chords throughout the whole song.

I got a friend and I need him
But he s so far away
Because he s friends with the needle
And it s always there to play
He s got no one left to follow
He just goes his own way
And when today turns into tomorrow
Well tomorrow looks a lot like today

But when you look inside yourself
Would you wish that I was near?
Or would you wish that I was by your side?
When the stars have all come out
Will the horizon still be clear?
Or will you look at me through clouded skies?
But when you look inside yourself
Would you wish that I was near?
Or would you wish that I was by your side?
When the stars have all come out
Will the horizon still be clear?
Or will you look at me through clouded skies?

So the spotlight s now on you
You got your back against the wall
The small crack in the floor looks like heaven right now
What happened to the days when we were just runnin through the streets?
Time turned it s back on you and you don t know how

So put your hands behind your head
Feel the cold tighten on your skin

Should you get the chance to start again
Would you keep the door locked tight, or will you let the needle in?

When you look inside yourself
Would you wish that I was near?
Or would you wish that I was by your side?
When the stars have all come out
Will the horizon still be clear?
Or will you look at me through clouded skies?
When you look inside yourself
Would you wish that I was near?
Or would you wish that I was by your side?
When the stars have all come out
Will the horizon still be clear?
Or will you look at me through clouded skies?

Whoa, oh yeah...

When you look inside yourself
Would you wish that I was near?
Or would you wish that I was by your side?
When the stars have all come out
Will the horizon still be clear?
Or will you look at me through clouded skies?
when you look inside yourself
Would you wish that I was near?
Or would you wish that I was by your side?
When the stars have all come out
Will the horizon still be clear?
Or will you look at me through clouded skies?

Yeah, oh yeah...
