

Is Somebody Singing
Barenaked Ladies

A new song, and the first song to ever be premiered from space.

It s a collaboration by BNL and astronaut, Chris Hadfield. It also features the Wexford Gleeks Choir.

These chords overall sound good, with just a couple rough spots. I tanscribed them by ear, so feel free to submit any corrections. Enjoy!

-Standard Tuning-

-No Capo-

-Chords Are Played As Follows:-

F#m: 022000
E: xx0232
Bm: x02210
D: x32010
A: 320033
Dadd9: x32033

[Intro]

F#m, E, Bm, D, E

[Verse 1]

F#m E Bm
On solid fuel and wires,
D E F#m
Turn the key and light the fire,
E Bm D E
We re leaving Earth today.

[Verse 2]

This rocket s burning bright,
We ll soon be out of sight,
And orbiting in Space.

[Pre-Chorus]

E F#m
Pushed back in my seat,
A
Look out my window,
E Dadd9
There goes home.
E F#m
That ball of shiny blue,

A E Dadd9 E
Houses everybody anybody ever knew.

[Chorus]

E (Let ring) A E
So sing your song, I m listening,
Bm D Bm
Out where stars are glistening,
E F#m E Bm D
I can hear your voices bouncing off the Moon.
(D) E A E
If you could see our nation,
Bm D Bm E
From the International Space Station,
F#m E Bm
You d know why I want to get back soon (Get back soon).

[Verse 3]

Eighteen thousand miles an hour,
Fueled by science and solar power,
The ocean s racing past.

[Verse 4]

At half a thousand tons,
Ninety minutes, Moon to Sun,
A bullet can t go half as fast.

[Pre-Chorus]

Floating from my seat,
Look out my window,
There goes home (There goes home).
That brilliant ball of blue,
Is where I m from and also where I m going to.

[Chorus]

So sing your song, I m listening,
Out where stars are glistening,
I can hear your voices bouncing off the Moon.
If you could see our nation,
From the International Space Station,
You d know why I want to get back soon (Get back soon).

[Bridge]

F#m E D
All black and white just fades to gray,
F#m E D
Where the Sun rises sixteen times a day (Day),
F#m E D
You can t make out borders from up here,
F#m E D
Just a spinning ball within a tiny atmosphere (Atmosphere).

[Break]

(Strum each chord once)

Dadd9, E, Dadd9

[Pre-Chorus]

Pushed back in my seat,
Look out my window,
Here comes home (Home).
What once was fueled by fear,
Now has fifteen nations orbiting together here.

[Chorus]

So sing your song, I m listening,
Out where stars are glistening,
I can hear your voices bouncing off the Moon.
If you could see our nation,
From the International Space Station,
You d know why I want to get back soon (Get back soon),

[Outro]

You d know why I want to get back soon (Getting back to you, getting back to you),
You d know why I want to get back soon (Getting back to you, getting back to you),
You d know why I want to get back soon (Getting back to you, getting back to you),
You d know why I want to get back soon.
