

It Must Be You Moses
Bart Millard

Capo 1

Verse:

I d like to look in the mirror, without hiding my eyes
I d like to see what You see, why You think I m qualified
To speak for You, O God, Most High
Who hides a baby in the reeds of a river, until he s grown?
Gives him a stage and the strength to deliver his people home?
Cause I m tongue tied, weak in the knees
Must be something You only see

Chorus

If there s anything good, anything that s good in me
Well, it must be You, must be You
And if there s any part of my shaking heart to see this journey through
It must be You; it must be You
Must be You; it must be You

Verse 2

Not gonna argue with fiery branches that speak my name
Not gonna start taking backward glances from where we came
Cause tomorrow s holding our dreams, but today I m here on my knees

Intrumental: Em C G D

Bridge:

O God of parting water; God of falling bread
If my words should falter, will You speak instead?

You must see something good, You must see something true
