Intro: D F#m

D F#m
If you call tomorrow I will dream I was a daughter
D F#m
Weavin through these brand-new silver streams
Em
Turned into dusty roads that we both wandered on
A
We prayed to perfect Avalon
Em G D
We wished for anyone to take us home
D F#m
If you want to build this house with me Oh what a story
D F#m
This is how they ll all remember me
Em
We were the lucky ones that would survive the flood
A
With potted flowers in our blood
Em G D
Pretendin that we don t know where we bleed
A
What a pretty fall
Em G D
We fell asleep but we couldn t hear their little words
A Em
We swam in the rivers, We sang with the birds
G D
We gave away our hearts before we knew what they were
G D
What a pretty fall
(don t sing too loud, they are asleep)
A Em
Didn t even know
(don t sing too loud, they are still dreaming)
G D
We sang out with the birds
(don t sing too loud, they are asleep)
A Em G D
Gave away our hearts before we knew what they were (don t sing too loud, they are asleep)
A Em
