

Oil On Water
Bastille

Intro: E B B/A# G#m D#

verse 1

          E                                  B
So her fingers ran away with themselves
B/A#  G#m                  D#
  Till everything was documented
          E                                  B
Her mind it was reaching out
B/A#  G#m                                  D#
  To put into words what their bodies had done

          E                                  B
They lie together, oh
B/A#  G#m  E    D#
Oil on wa - ter
          E                                  B
And they lie upon her, oh
B/A#          G#m  E    D#
Someone s daugh - ter

verse 2

          E                                  B
It s a catalogue of modern mistakes
B/A#  G#m                                  D#
Her words and legs wrapped around each man
          E                                  B
Leaving stories like digital crumbs
B/A#          G#m                                  D#
As she turns these nights into literature

          E                                  B
They lie together, oh
B/A#  G#m  E    D#
Oil on wa - ter
          E                                  B
And they lie upon her, oh
B/A#          G#m  E    D#
Someone s daugh - ter

E B
When they leave she sets about writing down
B/A# G#m D#
Awkward body games all over town
E B
Warm affection runs through every word
B/A# G#m D#
We re screens away but we re laughing with her

E B
They lie together, oh
B/A# G#m E D#
Oil on wa - ter
E B
Ooh they lie upon her, oh
B/A# G#m E D#
Someone s daugh - ter

E B
(They lie upon her, oh)
B/A# G#m E D#
(Someone s daugh - ter)
