

Oil On Water
Bastille

Intro: D A A/A# F#m C#

verse 1

          D                                  A
So her fingers ran away with themselves
A/A#  F#m                  C#
Till everything was documented
          D                                  A
Her mind it was reaching out
A/A#  F#m                                  C#
To put into words what their bodies had done

          D                                  A
They lie together, oh
A/A#  F#m  D    C#
Oil on wa - ter
          D                                  A
And they lie upon her, oh
A/A#          F#m  D    C#
Someone s daugh - ter

verse 2

          D                                  A
It s a catalogue of modern mistakes
A/A#  F#m                                  C#
Her words and legs wrapped around each man
          D                                  A
Leaving stories like digital crumbs
A/A#          F#m                                  C#
As she turns these nights into literature

          D                                  A
They lie together, oh
A/A#  F#m  D    C#
Oil on wa - ter
          D                                  A
And they lie upon her, oh
A/A#          F#m  D    C#
Someone s daugh - ter

D A A/A# F#m C#
D A A/A# F#m C#

                  D  A
When they leave she sets about writing down
A/A#          F#m                                  C#
Awkward body games all over town
                  D  A
Warm affection runs through every word
A/A#      F#m  C#
We re screens away but we re laughing with her

                  D  A
They lie together, oh
A/A#      F#m      D      C#
Oil on wa - ter
                  D  A
Ooh they lie upon her, oh
A/A#          F#m      D      C#
Someone s daugh - ter

                  D  A
(They lie upon her, oh)
A/A#          F#m      D      C#
(Someone s daugh - ter)
