

Poet
Bastille

Poet
By Bastille

Intro (whistling): C# F#m E G F Bb

C G D
Obsession it takes control,
C F C G D
Obsession it eats me whole,
Em D G
I can't say the words out loud,
Em D C
So in a rhyme I wrote you down,
D G
Now you'll live through the ages,
C D C
I can feel your pulse in the pages.

G D
Whoa Whoa oa
C G
I have written you down,
Em D
Now you will live forever,
C G
And all the world will read you,
Em D
And you will live forever,
C Em
In eyes not yet created,
C G
On tongues that are not born,
C G
I have written you down,
Em D
Now you will live forever.

Whistling: Em G Em D
F C G D
Your body lies upon the sheets,
C F C D
Of paper and words so sweet,

Em            D            G
I can't say the words,
Em                    D            G
So I wrote you into my verse,
C                                    D    G
Now you'll live through the ages,
          C                            D            C
I can feel your pulse in the pages.

C
I have read her with these eyes,
          Em
I've read her with these eyes,
          G                            D
I have held her in these hands.

F            C                    G
I have written you down,
          Em                            D
Now you will live forever,
          C                            G
The virtues in the verse,
          Em
And you will live forever.

Chorus

Whistling: G D Bm Em

B                                    A G
You will live forever

Tabbed and transposed by James Brockman, using Chordify