

Poet
Bastille

Poet
By Bastille

Intro (whistling): B Em D F Eb G#

Bb F C
Obsession it takes control,
Bb Eb Bb F C
Obsession it eats me whole,
Dm C F
I can't say the words out loud,
Dm C Bb
So in a rhyme I wrote you down,
C F
Now you'll live through the ages,
Bb C Bb
I can feel your pulse in the pages.

F C
Whoa Whoa oa
Bb F
I have written you down,
Dm C
Now you will live forever,
Bb F
And all the world will read you,
Dm C
And you will live forever,
Bb Dm
In eyes not yet created,
Bb F
On tongues that are not born,
Bb F
I have written you down,
Dm C
Now you will live forever.

Whistling: Dm F Dm C
Eb Bb F C
Your body lies upon the sheets,
Bb Eb Bb C
Of paper and words so sweet,

Dm            C            F
I can't say the words,
Dm            C            F
So I wrote you into my verse,
Bb                            C    F
Now you'll live through the ages,
          Bb                    C            Bb
I can feel your pulse in the pages.

Bb
I have read her with these eyes,
          Dm
I've read her with these eyes,
          F                    C
I have held her in these hands.

Eb            Bb            F
I have written you down,
          Dm                    C
Now you will live forever,
          Bb                    F
The virtues in the verse,
          Dm
And you will live forever.

Chorus

Whistling:    F C Am Dm

A                            G F
You will live forever

Tabbed and transposed by James Brockman, using Chordify