Am F G

Am F G
Never see the big church steeple when I call you on the phone

Am F G
Never feel the rush of angels, when we stay up late alone

Am F G
Never whisper you a great love story, only scream and cry and moan

Am
But you re a good man, but you re a good man

F G
I keep telling myself to just let go

Am F G

Am F G
Oh, let go of the one who took all your gold

Am F G
I get home and there s a love note waiting but only he is here tonight

Am F G
And the words, the promises you re making only echo all these lies

Am F G
And for every sweet nothing you whisper why is goodbye my reply?

Am
Cos you re a good man, cos you re a good man

F G
I keep telling myself to just let go

Am F G
There was someone that I knew before

Am F G
A heart from the past that I cannot forget

Am F G
I let him take all my gold, and hurt me so bad

Am F G
But now for you, I have nothing left of all my gold

Am F G
(something I can t understand) Turn my heart black

Am F G
Am I ever gonna let him go? Get my gold back

Am F G
And today I was a dead girl walking, see the light burn through tears

Am F G

Heard you say my name and get to talking of the love and all the fears
Am F G
And you saw all the pain I was holding, and yet still you d hold me near Am
Cos you re a good man, cos you re a good man,
F G
I keep telling myself to just let go

Am F G
There was someone that I knew before
Am F G
A heart from the past that I cannot forget
Am F G
I let him take all my gold, and hurt me so bad
Am F G
But now for you, I have nothing left of all my gold

Am F G
There was someone that I knew before
