The seals, they cried in jubilee
The sharks, they howled along with me
And birds, they flew into the wind
The whale, he roamed the lonely sea

And I dived into you
I dived into you
On this ocean hue
Cause I dived into you

The lighthouse dog lifted his brow
The crippled trees bent low to growl
And swans, they wrestled with lifetime s grasp
In hopefullness they nestled the past
Teachers and travellers made their mark
They dined and feasted on whale and shark
And so the ocean lost its depths
And boredom rained as the ocean wept

Em Dsus2add6 Cmaj7

Cmaj7

Birds they raised their young for dead
And ladies used feathery pillows for bed

And black snow came and black snow stayed
And froze the ocean out of love

Em Dsus2add6 Cmaj7

Out of love

Cmaj7

I lay quiet, next to you
Transformed a whole
Transformed anew
No longer diving into
But lying quiet next
To you
