

Dirty Pi
Beans on Toast

Not completely right, it would sound perfect along with the music.
Sounds like it cant be far off though, maybe half a step or something (someone let me know).

However it sounds really good still if your just playing it as a cover.
Also didnt t really take much care over lyrics so do correct, these are just rough

C,F,G,C

Theres a paki on the corner and he runs a little shop,
And my dad he will not go there because he think he stole his job,
And theres a flaming homosexual, heâ€™s dressed up like a queen,
And heâ€™ll probably fuck you up the ass and give you some disease,

F,		C,		G,		C
Lets	sit	on	both	sides	of	the	fence,	where	the	grass	is	always	green,
	F								G				C
If	we	forget	about	what	were	scared	about,	we	might	work	out	what	we	need.

C,F,G,C

Theres a guy down the kabab shop who looks like a terrorist,
And I m sure if he got on my bus, heâ€™d have a bomb strapped to his chest,
There is a problem with society, there s so much there to lose,
Maybe we should blame our children who hide underneath their hoods,

F,		C,		G,		C
Lets	sit	on	both	sides	of	the	fence,	where	the	grass	is	always	green,
	F								G				C
If	we	forget	about	what	were	scared	about,	we	might	work	out	what	we	need.

C,F,G,C

Well theres a nigger in the village teaching a white man how to dance,
Theres a Christian girl with a turban on and a business man in drag,
Theres a jewish man with an arab girl and a smile across his face,
Theres a anacist with a set of rules and a generous capitalist

F,		C,		G,		C
Lets	sit	on	both	sides	of	the	fence,	where	the	grass	is	always	green,
	F								G				C
If	we	forget	about	what	were	scared	about,	we	might	work	out	what	we	need.