Bb                      Cm      Gm              F
   I see you every time I close my eyes;
Bb                      Cm      Gm              F
   the evening shadows try to sympathize.
 Bb                     Cm      Gm                      F
Time is another stranger, just a thief who stole.

                        Cm              Gm

Saudade, saudade, oh...
Bb                      Cm              Gm

                  F
Saudade, saudade...

Bb              Cm      F   Gm         F
   But I find comfort when I realize
Bb              Cm    F   Gm             F
   this lonely longing is a part of life.
 Bb         Cm     F   Gm                       F
I ll always hold you closely, deep within my heart.
