

I Just Started Hating Some People Today
Beck

E (Pull off and hammer on occasionally on the G string to get the hoe down vibe going)

E

I just started to see the light of day

B

Some people say one thing but act the other way

E A

Sooner or later they give themselves away

E B E

And I just started to see the light of day

E

I just started hating some people today

B

Talking trash behind your back all day

E A

Saying things that a garbage man would not say

E B E

And I just started hating some people today

E

I just started wanting to kill someone

B

And I don t need a nunchuck or a gun

E A

Cause one look at my eye and you will run

E B E

And I just started wanting to kill someone

E

I just started wanting to see you dead,

B

At least one half of the double life you lead

E A

And I may be joking, you ll be choking instead

E B E

And I just started wanting to see you dead

E

And I just started wanting to punch your face,

B

You might wanna wear a helmet just in case

E A

What was once your face is gonna be replaced,

E B E

And I just started wanting to punch your face

E

I just started hating some people today

B

Rick and Ford and Randy better run away

E

A

Some others I don t even think I have to name

E

Cause I just started seeing the light of day

E A E

Then the crazy punk outro is just

A|-----|

E|-000000-5^-----|

Have fun playing :)
