

We Live Again
Beck

capo 3rd fret(thanks funkybot)

G A F# G E A C D

G                      A                      F#                      G
these withered hands have dug for a dream

E                      A                      C                      D
sifted through sand and leftover nightmares

over the hill a desolate wind

E                      A                      C                      D
turns shit to gold and blows my soul crazy

G
the end

A
o the end

F                      C
we live again

Em Asus A
o i grow weary of the end

o hungry days the footsteps of fools
gazing alone through sex-painted windows
dredging the night drunk libertines
stink like a colognes from the newfangled wasteland

CHORUS

BRIDGE :

F                      C                      E7

love is a plague in a mix-match parade

Am F
where the castaways look so deranged

E when will the children learn to let their wildernesses burn

C	Em	Asus	A	A9	A
and	love	will	be	new	never
cold	and	vacant

these withered hands have dug for a dream
sifted through sand and leftover nightmares
