A A7+/G# F#m
He smiled and rubbed and stubble on his chin
A A7+/G# F#m
He sure shall find the weariness and dreariness
C#m
of life that s growing thin
D E A E
Yet he didn t have so very far to go
D E A E
With a pencil in his hand he will travel on as planned
D E A E
With a mere step in a mountain to a light

Refrão:

A A7+/G# A7/G D E A E
Craise Finton Kirk, see him go on his way
A A7+/G# A7/G D
Oh, they don t know where he is.
E A E A
Very, very nice. Very, very nice.

Ponte:

A A7+/G# A7/G
Even in the morning when he slept
D E A E
Something odd is missing
A A7+/G# A7/G
There s nothing very much to talk about
D E A E
And nothing very much to see

A A7+/G# F#m
Talks about the place he d like to go.
A A7+/G# F#m
And you never see the worrying and hurrying

C#m

and that makes a person slow.

D E A E

Yet you wouldn't think he'd be so hard to find.

D E A E

Yet he looks so very busy but there's nothing on his mind.

And his wavy hair continues not to grow.
