

While I Play
Bee Gees

D E A
I cry tears of emotion
D E A
to spread across the USA.
D E A
Ain t no sunshine, cowboy, in your pockets.
B
I ll make my own way,
E
while I play.
A
Baby, you forgot you re living.
D
Someone covered up your eyes.
E A
In my way at least I m giving
E A
what I love, am I wise?
D E A
There s gonna be some confusion.
D E A
And there s gonna be a day
D E
you ll raise your eyes
and you ll look to the skies
B
and you ll pray,
E
while I play.
A
I am my father s son
D
or that is what I heard.
E A
Maybe I got it wrong.
E A
I didn t mean a word.
E
You got my face
A
and I ll play your ace,
E A
pretend I haven t heard.
D E A
There s gonna be some confusion.

D E A
And there s gonna be a day

D E
you ll raise your eyes

and you ll look to the skies

B
and you ll pray,

E
while I play.

A D
I am a minstrel, that is all I want to be.

E A
I ll play inside your soul,

E A
I ll show you to yourself,

E A
I ll fill your head with wild emotions,

E A
a symphony in wealth.

D E A
There s gonna be some confusion.

D E A
And there s gonna be a day

D E
you ll raise your eyes

and you ll look to the skies

B
and you ll pray,

E
while I play.

A D
I will take my leave, I gotta move on time.

E A
I played inside your soul,

E A
I made you sing along.

E A
I will return to find out

E A
if the melody was wrong.

D E A
There s gonna be some confusion.

D E A
And there s gonna be a day

D E
you ll raise your eyes

and you ll look to the skies

B

and you ll pray,

E

while I play.
