Verse 1.

C	Am	F	C
Met on an interstate bound for Carolina
Am	C	F	C
It sure is hard to get there but your soul knows the way
C	Am	F	C
She had the gift of tongue, laurels and medals
Am	C	F	C
He gave up that life long before today

Chorus 1.

G	F	C
She was fourteen years old
Am	F	C C/B
He was barely a man
Am	G	F
Now she's pickin' up her life
G	C	FF C FF
And he sings in the band

Verse 2.

Her eyes light up the night like itty bits of sequin
She likes his face, a story of its own
Company's a fright, lonely in Manhattan
Waiting for a savior or to see his show

Chorus 2.

She grew out her hair
Says she wants to be a star
It's a long road to Heaven

From the backseat of a car

Change:

Am G/B F C
A dancer, a poet, a living existential
Am F C C/B
Nothing St. Estephe cannot save
Am G/B F C
One can escape from running in circles
Am F G
Promises die in the grave

Verse 3.

Night they finally spent, Winona Minnesota
A pretty face was born here, the ugly pass away
Holy is the magic in this life or after
Romance is a stranger, lets a lover stay

Chorus 3.

Now she s twenty years old
An she s found another man
Now she s lookin back on life
And he sings in the band
