She was fourteen years old
Gm	Eb	Bb	Bb/B
He was barely a man
Gm	F	Eb
Now she s pickin up her life
F	Bb	FF Bb	FF
An he sings in the band

Verse 2.

Her eyes light up the night like itty bits of sequin
She likes his face, a story of its own
Company s a fright, lonely in Manhattan
Waiting for a savior or to see his show

Chorus 2.

She grew out her hair
Says she wants to be a star
It s a long road to Heaven

From the backseat of a car

Change:

Gm	F/B	Eb	Bb
A dancer, a poet, a living existential
Gm	Eb	Bb	Bb/B
Nothing St. Estephe cannot save
Gm	F/B	Eb	Bb
One can escape from running in circles
Gm	Eb	F
Promises die in the grave

Verse 3.

Night they finally spent, Winona Minnesota
A pretty face was born here, the ugly pass away
Holy is the magic in this life or after Romance is a stranger, lets a lover stay

Chorus 3.

Now she s twenty years old
An she s found another man
Now she s lookin back on life
And he sings in the band
