Verse 1.

D Bm G D
Met on an interstate bound for Carolina
Bm D G D
It sure is hard to get there but your soul knows the way
D Bm G D
She had the gift of tongue, laurels and medals
Bm D G D
He gave up that life long before today

Chorus 1.

A G D
She was fourteen years old
Bm G D D/B
He was barely a man
Bm A G
Now she s pickin up her life
A D FF D FF
An he sings in the band

Verse 2.

Her eyes light up the night like itty bits of sequin
She likes his face, a story of its own
Company s a fright, lonely in Manhattan
Waiting for a savior or to see his show

Chorus 2.

She grew out her hair
Says she wants to be a star
It s a long road to Heaven

From the backseat of a car

D FF D D/B

Change:

Bm A/B G D
A dancer, a poet, a living existential

Bm G D D/B
Nothing St. Estephe cannot save

Bm A/B G D
One can escape from running in circles

Bm G A
Promises die in the grave

Verse 3.

Night they finally spent, Winona Minnesota
A pretty face was born here, the ugly pass away
Holy is the magic in this life or after
Romance is a stranger, lets a lover stay

Chorus 3.

Now she s twenty years old
An she s found another man
Now she s lookin back on life
And he sings in the band

D FF D FF D

Great road trippin tune to sing along to or play along to.
