

Bradenburg
Beirut

So this is probably the easiest song ever. At least the stringed rhythm part.
Played a mandolin, I m pretty sure (it sounds like the noise my mandolin spits out), but still not bad with a plain old acoustic.

Dm Gm

In between the chord change, strum the strings open once so that it sounds like what he doing. Play each chord for two measures, listen for the rhythm, and just rinse and repeat.
