[Intro]
B E F#
[Chorus]
You re on in five, it s time you rise or fail.
They we gone before, stood by your door all day.
For what it s worth, defend your kind from shame.
The lights are down, go on inside, they we paid.
[Verse 1]
         E
                 F#
You re the face in stone
      E
Through the land I own.
You never found it home.
             E
You re not the girl I used to know.
What would you hide from such a glow
If I had only told you so?
[Chorus]
                      E
You re on in five, it s time you rise or fail.
They we gone before, stood by your door all day.
[Verse 2]
             E
But you never found it home.
               E
A fair price I d pay to be alone.
      E
What would you hide from such a glow
If I had only told you so?
[Outro]
B E F#
