

Transatlantique
Beirut

For the E chord during the beginning verses and intro, hammer on the second fret of the e string.

And throughout the song do it with the B string during the B7 chord.

[Intro]

E F#m B7 (x6)

[Verse 1]

E F#m B7 E F#m B7
No, I couldn't tell you how the house burned down
E F#m B7 E F#m B7
Last night while we were running around
E F#m B7 E F#m B7
Midnight surrounds you, the moonlight makes you proud
E F#m B7 E F#m B7
Last night, oh, we were running around

A E G#m B (x2)

[Verse 2]

A E G#m B
Sing for last call, sing for last fall, such was it all
A E G#m B
Sing for last call, sing for last fall, such was it all
A E G#m B
All along I was your home
A E G#m B
All along I was your home

[Instrumental]

A E G#m B
B D A F#m D E (x6)
A E G#m B (x2)

[Verse 3]

A E G#m B
Sing for last call, sing for last fall, such was it all
A E G#m B
Sing for last call, sing for last fall, such was it all
A E G#m B
And all along I was your home
A E G#m B

All along I was your home
A E G#m B
All along I was your home
A E G#m B
All along I was your home