Intro: B F# B F# (2x)

B F#
Look at the kid from school
B F#
He s teaching mamas and papas how to be a little cool
B F#
He s changing fashion, the way he dress
B F#
The tracksuits are old, and the hoody s way too moody
D# A#
For a kid with the will to funk
B F# C#
He dances in secret; he s a part-time punk

B F#
She s getting off the plane
B F#
She wants to write a thesis on the population underprivileged
B F#
The kids fighting up the lane
B
Shop lifting, just drifting
F#
Like The Switchblade And The Cross
D# A#
But if there s trouble she s got the moves
B F# C#
She s taking an elementary class in Kung fu

B F#
I left my washing in the launderette
B F#
You can put some money on it, you can place a little bet
B
That when I see my washing
D# A# B F#
The black will be grey and the white will be grey
C#

But the blues are still blue

B F#
I m crying out for my mum
B F#
If the malady don t go away we re in a little trouble
B F#
With the boss of the company
B F#
I m a singer, a swinger I m a layabout but laying on
D# A#
The dock in the lazy sun
B F# C#
Will never quite relegate me to a bum

B F#
I left my lady in the launderette
B F#
You can put some money on it, you can place a little bet
B
That when I see my lady
D# A# B F#
The black will be white and the white will be black
C#
But the blues are still blue

B F#
Baby, I love your face
I ve been creeping round this town because?
F#
Well, creeping s just my way
B F#
But with a little wink I ll be there
B F#
I ll be excited for a week, but then excitement starts to fade
D# A#
I know your young, but you re out of touch
B F# C#
You re French, your vocabulary s not quite formed

B F#
I left my homework in the launderette
B F#
I got a letter from my mamma which my stoopid dog has ate
I hid behind the fence
D# A# B F#
Here comes the deputy head with the bark of a bulldog

C#

He s not making much sense
