Bb Eb Bb Eb

Bb

Eb

For the price of a cup of tea ...

Bb Eb

You d get a line of coke ...

Bb

Eb

For the price of a night with me ...

Ab Fsus4 F

You d be the village joke

Bb

Eb

For the price of a pint of milk...

Bb Eb

I ll tell you all I know ...

Bb

Eb

About the state of the world today ...

Ab Fsus4 F

Sit down, enjoy the show

Bb

Eb

She had several hours to find a place to stay

Bb

Eb

Try the coffee shop, but somewhere on the way

F Eb
She heard about a place, somewhere she could go

F C
Walked a couple of blocks to her destination

Bb Eb
For the price of a cup of tea ...

Bb Eb
You d get a seven inches ...

Bb Eb
Soul black vinyl to stop your tears ...

Ab
You can use my stereo

You might be the village joke but

Fsus4 F
Don t listen to the gossip of the other folk

Bb Eb Bb Eb

Bb Eb
She just wants to be accepted in this place

Bb
There s something in her face ...

Eb
She will always seem exotic and aloof

F
If you want to know the truth ...

Eb
Her friend the stars dripping from the jewelled sky

F
When she was passing by ...

Would keep her calm

C
There was people that she knew, at least she thought she did

C

Be easy on the kid!

Gm C

She took her winter coat from her plastic wrapper

Bb Eb

Pushed back her fringe, see her birthmark

Bb F

She can finally be the person she wanted to be

(Bb Eb) x 8 , Bb
