Marx And Engels Belle and Sebastian Belle and Sebastian - Marx and Engels From I m Waking Up To Us, 2001. Capo 3 Intro: D A G D C G Em A D A G D There is misery in all I hear and see, from the people on T.V. Em After their tea when life begins again, they ll be happier than me D There are a thousand meals being made on Saturday G D С From the view I saw today, I took a bet inside the launderette, Εm With a girl from Wallesey

Interlude from D: A G D C G Em A x2

(Repeat Verse)

Conclusion:

There was no coming on to her, there was no intellect, that she

Em D C Em

Could respect, if it couldn t see, that the girl just wants to be

Left alone with Marx and Engels for awhile,

C Em A

She s writing in style, of any riot girl.

What a ballad; Aquinas says pulcra sunt quae visa placent ...perhaps if Belle and Sebastian were around in his day, he would have changed eyes to ears.

R. T. Devitt.