

Marx And Engels
Belle and Sebastian

Belle and Sebastian - Marx and Engels
From I m Waking Up To Us, 2001.

Capo 3

Intro: C G F C Bb F Dm G

C G F C
There is misery in all I hear and see, from the people on T.V.

Bb F Dm G
After their tea when life begins again, they ll be happier than me

C G
There are a thousand meals being made on Saturday

F C Bb F
From the view I saw today, I took a bet inside the launderette,

Dm G
With a girl from Wallesey

C G F
She spoke in dialect, I could not understand, but one thing that

C Bb F C
She made clear, there was no coming on to her, there was no way.

Interlude from C: G F C Bb F Dm G x2

(Repeat Verse)

Conclusion:

Bb F F
There was no coming on to her, there was no intellect, that she

Dm C Bb Dm
Could respect, if it couldn t see, that the girl just wants to be

F C
Left alone with Marx and Engels for awhile,

Bb Dm G

She s writing in style, of any riot girl.

What a ballad; Aquinas says pulcra sunt quae visa placent
...perhaps if Belle and Sebastian were around in his day,
he would have changed eyes to ears.

R. T. Devitt.