INTRO : E - E - A - A - G - D/F# - E - E

VERSE :

E A
She called me up today
G D/F# E
Meet me down at the old caf e
E A
I jumped into the shower
G D/F# E
I was getting my marching orders

CHORUS :

D Dsus4
We need to talk
D Dsus4 - D - G - D/F#
Step into my office, baby
D F
I wanna give you the job
C F
A chance of overtime
B E
Say, my place at nine?

(verse chords)

She d never stand for any lies
She s got an Out Tray full of guys
I could sense a breath, a whole new feeling
Now she says she wants to call a meeting

(play chorus)

BRIDGE :

Am D
I m a slave to work
G B7 Em A
I m only living when I walk amongst the office staff

D

B7

And catch up with the office wag

E A

I ll be in bed by nine

B A

My curtains drawn

E

My thoughts composed

A B

I get to work on time

(verse chords)

She gave me some dictation

But my strength is in administration

I took down all she said

I even took down her little red dress

(chorus chords)

We need to talk

Step into my office, baby

I wanna give you the job

I m pushing for a raise

Been pushing now for days

BRIDGE 2 :

E A

My output is in decline

A G C A

I was burned out after Thatcher

E D6

My banner I laid down with a sigh

A G C A

Now I doubt if I ll ever catch her

(E7)

(verse chords)

I ve got to change my ways

Dress for business every day

A smart suit and a kipper tie

A big arrow pointing to my fly

(chorus chords)

We need to talk

Step into my office, baby

I wanna give you the job

A chance of overtime

Say, my place at nine?
