The finest prize at Fakenham fair
 D A D
Is the pretty carnival girl

Her hair was brown and her eyes were blue and her lips they were soft and red
Iâ€™d never seen such a shape as hers and my eyes nearly popped from my head
For I was young and innocent oh but still even I could see the way she smiled and winked my way said â€˜come take a chance on meâ€™

CH.

My friends they said well sheâ€™s not for you oh what will the old people think
But I took my chance and I won that girl just as quick as an eye could wink
And the finest day in all my life whatever may come to pass
Was the day I went up to Fakenham Fair and won me the carnival lass
