

New York Girls
Bellowhead

Artist: Bellowhead
Song: New York Girls
Album: Hedonism (2010)

Tabbed by Bryn Portas, aka, Stud_Muffin

An absolutely cracking song, by one of the most talented and entertaining bands around today, I hope you enjoy strumming along with the song, and to make it sound better unaccompanied, I have included the chords that I use in DADGAD tuning, to add more ringing open strings.

Any comments or rates are welcomed, and feel free to use my tab as a basis to work out your own. So here it is, Bellowhead s version of New York Girls, ENJOY!!!

Intro/Polka section 1

D G A

Verse

D	G
As I walked down to New York town,
A	D
A fair maid I did meet
Bm	G
She asked me back to see her place
A	D
She lived on Barrack Street

Bm                    G
The liquor was so awful strong,
A                                    D
my head went round and round
D                                    G
And then we had another drink
A                                    D
before we sat to eat
Bm                                    G
The liquor was so awful strong,
A                                    D
I quickly fell asleep

Chorus

D                    G
And away, Santy
A                    D
My dear Annie
D                    G                                    A                                    D
Oh, you New York girls, can t you dance the polka?

Verse 4

D                    G
When I awoke next morning,
A                                    D
I had an aching head
Bm                                    G
And there was I Jack all alone,
A                                    D
stark naked in me bed
D                                    G
My gold watch and my money
A                                    D
and my lady friend were gone
Bm                                    G
And there was I Jack all alone,
A                                    D
stark naked in the room

Chorus

D                    G
And away, Santy
A                    D
My dear Annie
D                    G                                    A                                    D
Oh, you New York girls, can t you dance the polka?

Polka section 2

D G D A

Verse 5

D G
Oh looking round that little room,
A D
there s nothing I could see
Bm G
But a woman s shift and apron
A D
that were no use to me
D G
With a barrel for a suit of clothes,
A D
down Cherry Street forlorn
Bm G
Where Martin Churchill took me in
A D
and he sent me round Cape Horn
D G A D
So sailor lads, take warning when you land on New York shore
Bm G A D (stop)
You ll have to get up early to be smarter than a whore

Chorus

D G
And away, Santy
A D
My dear Annie
D G A D
Oh, you New York girls, can t you dance the polka?
D G
And away, Santy
A D
My dear Annie
D G A D
Oh, you New York girls, can t you dance the polka?
