

Trouble Bellstop

Capo 4th

All chords are relative to the capo

Okay, so I don't have this all figured out yet. This is just a foundation for someone with a better ear to build on...

Most of the song has an A minor chord strummed on each beat, with a repeated riff in between, which I've yet to figure out. In the meantime, I'll just note it as Am. Also some of the lyrics are in Icelandic (or another unidentified language), which I'm unable to translate.

Intro: Am

Am
I see the morning dew, creeping on in,
Inside a calling voice, from deep within.
So I borrowed a book, with pages all blank (I wrote down some words)
And then I sang them out, so they could be heard

Am
Don't you worry, it will be returned
To you all shiny and new.
Don't you worry, it will be returned to you,
All shiny and new

Am
Walking down what used to be my street, now paved with disbelief,
Friendly faces turning away, ay, whispering hey, hey now
Hey now, hey now, there he goes, he must be mad,
Speaking of a friendly place in this world, well ain't that sad

Now I've got

Am
Trouble, trouble, troubling

C G
Fly me away when I've got

Am
Trouble, trouble, troubling (I want you to)

G D
Bring me the day and night
x2

Am
Trouble,

Trouble,
Hey, hey now
Don t you worry, it will be returned
Don t you worry, it will be returned to you

Don t you worry, it will be returned
To you all shiny and new.
Don t you worry, it will be returned to you,
All shiny and new

Am

Came to me,
Came to me,
Came to me with nothing but nothing but nothing but nothing but hate (take it away)
(Icelandic part)

We re nothing but

Am

Trouble, trouble, troubling

C G

Fly me away when I ve got

Am

Trouble, trouble, troubling (I want you to)

G D

Bring me the day and night

x2

Am

Don t you worry, it will be returned
To you all shiny and new.
Don t you worry, it will be returned to you,
All shiny and new

Hope this is in some way helpful
