Second-Hand Love Bellwether

Intro: F Gm A#

F

She got a secondhand love.

Gm

you get it on the run.

A#

well she keeps you guessing

F

when she leaves you all alone.

F

you can bide your time

Gm

every time you go.

A#

i ain t that hard to find.

F

everybody knows.

Chorus:

C A# F

i m walking down the streets again.

C A# F

little closer to the one you re on.

C A# F

if it s looking like a dead-end run.

C A# F

just means that i m missing you.

Solo: F Gm A#

F

Leaning on a lonesome heart,

Сm

maybe just as well.

A#

i f you re looking for the words to fall,

F

find them where they fell.

darling are you out there somewhere

Gm

making up your mind?

A#

There s something you borrowed,

something you left behind

Chorus:

C A# F
i m walking down the streets again.
C A# F
little closer to the one you re on.
C A# F
if it s looking like a dead-end run.
C A# F
just means that i m missing you.
