

Lullaby

Ben Caplan

[Intro]

C F G Am G

[Verse]

C
The market is empty
F G Am
The butcher s gone home
G
The candles have spent - soon the light will be gone
C
Soften your brow, dear
F G Am
Breath slow and deep
G
Let your eyes close as you drift off to sleep

[Pre-Chorus]

C
The moon in the window
F G Am
The sun in the sea
G C
Now is the quiet - just baby and me

[Chorus]

F G C F
And the sun will sleep in the ocean tonight
F G C F
And the cool of the water makes everything right
F G C F
And the ocean once dreamed it could shine high above
F C G C
But protecting, reflecting the sun is enough

[Verse]

C
We used to go dancing
F G Am
We used to drink wine
G
We used to buy flowers and now we buy time
C F G Am
Mommy and daddy would work bear our hands
G

To make sure you have all you need in this land

[Pre-Chorus]

C

The moon in the window

F G Am

The sun in the sea

G C

Now is the quiet - just baby and me

[Chorus]

F G C F

And the sun will sleep in the ocean tonight

F G C F

And the cool of the water makes everything right

F G C F

And the ocean once dreamed it could shine high above

F C G C

But protecting, reflecting the sun is enough

[Final chorus]

F G C F

And the sun will sleep in the ocean tonight

F G C F

And the cool of the water makes everything right

F G C F

And the ocean once dreamed it could shine high above

F C G C

But protecting, reflecting the sun is enough

F C G C

Protecting, reflecting the sun is enough
