Dm C A# Gm
another night slips away in other words i should say A# F A# A#C
there are no words he should say there are no words Dm C A# Gm
in his eyes i see the fear that only time should disappear
A# F A#
if only time could reappear now s the time
C A# F A# F A# C
something to take it away, to take it away, to take it A# F A# F A# A7
don t let it stay, don t let it stay, don t let it

A# F C Gm
the butterflies are passive-agressive and put their
A# F C
problems on the shelf, but they re beautiful
A# F C Gm
and he ll realize the only thing that s real
A# F C are the kids that kid themselves and the demise of the beautiful Dm
what is beautiful?

back into the next verse

A# F C

it starts stopping when it stops stopping, it starts stopping when it stops stopping
A# F C Gm
it starts stopping when it stops stopping, it starts stopping, YEAH.

jam on those chords for a while.
