No Capo

Dsus2                      Asus2

Grab your keys

Esus4                      E
I don't care where we go
                                 D                                              A

I need something sweet
                                                                                 E

And a song on the radio

Bm                                              F#m
Because I've got to keep on moving

A                                              Esus4
Yes, I've got to get somewhere
                                 Bm                                              D

Love, you know just where this is going
                                                                                 E

Yes, you know that

Esus4                                              A                      Dsus2

Your lips are summer candy
