When You Grow
Bernard Butler

G Dm7 Em C

```
      G                          Dm7
When car lights flash in your face
     Em                           C
Your kind heart will give you away
                G                        F
Don t keep us apart, don t lead us astray
                  Em           C
Don t leave it to lay

       G                   Dm7
When darkness keeps you awake
     Em                 C
And demons lead you astray
               G                           F
Don t keep us apart, don t leave it to lay
                       Em C
Don t you take this away

               D                    Am
And when you grow, I ll give you away
                  C                              G -
I ll lead you my way, I ll shield you from pain
F#m            D                             Am
Then when you love, I ll see that you re safe
                       F       F
I ll shield you from pain

       G                       Dm7
When god s love gets in your way
       Em                     C
Remember child how you were made
                G                       F
Don t keep us apart, don t lead us astray
                       Em   C
Don t you leave it to lay

      G                 Dm7
And behind these explanation
         Em               C
Lies the sweetest desperation
               G                          F
Won t keep us apart, it won t lead us astray
                          Em   C
I ll keep the demons at bay

               D                   Am
