

Callous

Beth Amsel

I m sorry the placement of the chords are a little off in the tab. I couldn t get them to line up exactly right.

Capo: 5

G
I should have been careless, I should have been callous

C underneath the street lamp s sodium glare

G
I should have been thorough, I should have pushed you back your stubborn heart

C
and left you once and forever there

Em
but I kissed you

D/F# G
I smiled as I said goodbye

Em
and I meant what I said

C D
this is a rough road you wed

G
I m sitting here in Dallas, in a dive in Texas

C
with an ache like a forearm for the spoon

G
I am peeling back the labels, I m spinning empty bottles on the bar

C
lonely litters the room

Em
and I miss you

D/F# G
even more than you warned I would

Em
this is a bitch of a test

C D
this is my white flag at best

(no guitar on album â€" Em)
step up, be brave, lay down you guard
give in an inch, give up your heart

Em A
just imagine how it ll feel if I let you take me home

C

just imagine waking up sorry and alone

D

with my head upon your chest

C

with my hand across my mouth

D

C

there are things in life I swore that I could live and do without

D

D

but I swear that was before you found me

G

I couldn't be careless, I couldn't be callous

C

on the night of our fourth of July

G

I couldn't be thorough, I couldn't push you back your stubborn heart

C

underneath the roman candle light

Em

now I miss you

D/F#

G

even more though I swore I never could

Em

this is a bitch of a test

C

this is my white flag at best

D/F#

G

of all the pretty places that I've been

Em

honey none compare to you

C

D

I am sorry through and through oooh aaah

C

D

Ooh aah aaah aah aah

A C

D

G

Ooh oh ooh and if you'll have me I am coming home to you.

Beth Amsel's website: <http://www.bethamsel.org/pageone.html>