

Daylight

Better Than Ezra

standard tuning, from their cd Before the Robots:

C G F G Am
e|-3--3--3--3--0
b|-1--0--1--0--1
g|-0--0--2--0--2
D|-2--0--3--0--2
A|-3--2-----2--0
E|----3-----3---

C G F G
you re a long walk, in a rainstorm

C G F G
you re a cut that refuses to heal

C G F G x2

C G F G
you re dull ache, that i can t shake you re a cold that s clogging up my head or a broke watch, keeping time still til you pull me in, pull me in, and i can t fight, yeah

(chorus)

C G
if the night is cold

F G
and you re feeling old

C G F G
and the morning cuts you like a knife

C G
and you re wearing thin

F G
feel you re giving in

C G F G
in the darkest hour of the night, you find daylight

you re a stalled car in the desert you re a song I can t get off my mind in a dire strait with no help at all in sight you come rushing in, rushing in with a lifeline, yeah

(chorus)

(bridge)

Am C
pull me closer to your breast

Am G F G
i need you finally i confess... i m drifting, i m drifting

Am C
i love you but i hate you too

Am G F G
god only knows what i could do...i m drifting, i m drifting

C G
come on, give me one reason

F G
come on, find me in daylight

(chorus)

i m not 100% sure about the bridge, but the rest of the song is just how kevin griffin played it at the virgin megastore show. i ll update the tab if i find out definatively how to play the bridge or if i can find out what jim payne plays in the background.

until then, have fun playing the chorus over and over again :)
