

Devils Girl
Better Than Ezra

Intro: C G C G C G D Em (x2)

C G Em

Here s the story,

D C

I took a country ride one day

G Em D

When the rivers froze and the sun began to grey

=> * cool break that I don t feel like transcribing goes here

It was raining, I lost control and hit a tree.

When I looked up I saw a house in front of me.

*cool break

Well she let me in, there was magic in her eyes.

How I wish I could have seen through her disguise.

Chorus(x2): C G C G

And you sharpen your horns, light up the night

C G D Em C

you twist and you turn, and it leaves you up in the air

Verse3:

Yes she s wearing a power crystal around her neck.

She says it helps her with her concentration.

And she s chanting. Her words are healing my cracked head,

but their meaning defies explanation

Chorus(x2):

* cool break

notes: G A B C

E D C

BREAK: Em D C

Made a fire, I gave my life to her.

Em D C

Made a pact I had to keep. I sold my soul to her

Tricked by a devil girl, I sold my soul to her...

SOLO:

VERSE 4:

Time is running down, I could be crazy.

I sold my soul for seven years of pain.

But I m looking back, and I m thinking maybe.

The mark you make, the claim you stake,

these are the things remembered when you re gone.

Chorus (x4)
