Bettie Serveert - Something so Wild (from album Lamprey)

C#* = 030230
C# = 030200

intro: C#   C#   C#   C#

       C#                             F
She had 3 more lovers, but they all got cold feet
     Bbm                                      Eb
and I know that there were others, but she is so discrete
       C#                   G#               F#
Yet a wave of his hand s enough to get her back again
      C#                               F
She made it through highschool and she got a degree
       Bbm                              Eb
and I know in different ways she s a lot smarter than me
       C#                   G#             F#              C# C#
Yet a wave of his hand s enough to get her back again

    Bbm                        C#
I dispise every word that he speaks,
       Bbm                   G#
 cos he tries to make her feel weak
         F#                         G#
And he ll put her down in public and he treats her like a child
         Bbm                     Eb
but he ll never make a lapdog out of something so wild
      C#                   G#                  Bbm     F#
Yet a wave of his hand s enough to get her back again
      C#                   G#                     F#
Yet a wave of his hand s enough to get her back again
      C#                             F
And I tried to convince her, to make it on her own
           Bbm                    Eb
But she s afraid to be a spinster, afraid to be alone
```

        C#                      G#                      G#
Yet a wave of his hand............

solo

I dispise every move that he makes cos I know what he s trying to break

And he ll put her down......etc.
